Office of the Inspector General of Police in Mysore,

Bangalore, 10 - Sept - 1910

To

D. Devanaja Urs Esquire

Inspector General of Police in Mysore,

Respected Sir,

I am writing to inform you that I am writing to inform you that under the Civil Service Rules, 1906, Assistant Commissioners of Schedule A are required to undergo training in the various Branches of the Service, as marginally noted.

a) Accounts — 6 months

b) Survey — 6 months

c) Judicial — 1 year.

In the Accounts Branch, I have undergone the full period of training.

In the Survey, I have finished the measuring course, and the classification has to be learnt hereafter.

And I have been in the Police for the past 8 months.

Since I joined your office I have undergone training in the various branches of the office routine, and the executive portion of police work.
I also acted as Superintendent of Police, Belur District, for about four months, and during that period I had sufficient practical training and experience.

In connexion with the Special work entrusted to me, namely the drafting of rules under the new Police Regulation, I have had occasion to study the various systems of police administration

⑥ obtaining in Madras, Bombay and other provinces.

As I have had a sufficiently long training in your department, and as I have qualified myself by passing all the departmental tests, I request that you will be pleased to have government to send me to any district, so as to give me an opportunity to learn Revenue work.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

your most obedient servant,

D. Sreenivasa Svarup

Asst. Commissioner
